Reconnective Healing and Spiritual Counseling
-- Unifying the Body, Mind, and Spirit for Optimal Wellness--

Reconnective Healing is one form of the so-called "Non-Touch Energy Healing." It helps you to be "re-connected" with the Universe and hence back on track in your unique evolutionary process as a human being. It enables you to be in tune with the Light, Love, and Information coming from the subtle energy of the Universal Consciousness. It helps you develop a deeper and realistic understanding and acceptance of yourself at conscious and unconscious levels. It thus helps promote your sense of wellbeing as a spiritual entity.

Reconnective Healing is a powerful therapy to alleviate disease symptoms but also a natural path to restore the spiritual balance with body and mind. It helps to release the energy blockages that cause physical, physiological, psychological disorders and various stress-related illnesses prevalent in modern society. It aids you to be rid of aches, pains, depression, stress, and other physical and psychological symptoms.

Sailaja Pasupuleti, Ph.D. in Psychology, is a gifted Spiritual Counselor and Level I, II & III certified Reconnective Healer. She also has an accumulated vast personal knowledge of oriental spiritual practices, yoga, and Hinduism. Her warmth and graciousness add to the spiritual therapeutic environment that she creates to aid you in the healing process.
